WindsorEssex Economic Development Corporation Welcomes New Team Member

Windsor-Essex County, Ontario, Sunday, August 25, 2013 - The WindsorEssex Economic Development Corporation is pleased to welcome Anne Miskovsky as the new Business Development Officer. Anne begins her new role on Monday, August 26, 2013.

Sandra Pupatello, Chief Executive Officer for the WindsorEssex Economic Development Corporation explained, "Anne's new role is an integrated position within the business development team. Anne will contribute towards both small business and entrepreneurship development initiatives as well as business retention and expansion initiatives. A larger County presence means we can be even more helpful with business expansion and attraction activities. This should make our service easier to reach for our County businesses."

Sandra Pupatello will be available for media telephone interviews upon distribution of this media release on Sunday, August 25, 2013. Please contact Lana Drouillard at the number below.
